

Correct storage of cylinder liners and assemblies

Cylinder liners are deformed by compressive forces on the sides. Cylinder liners must therefore never be packaged and/or stored horizontally.

To prevent deformations, cylinder liners must always be stored vertically. It is also important to ensure that no heavy objects are placed on the cylinder liners.

The new sticker on the packaging of the assemblies and cylinder liners shows how they should be stored.

